Troy Campbell has been the coach for the Blazers for the past 8 years. In that time he has amassed an overall record of 245-61, with a record of 49-2 in State tournament play. He coached 6 straight State Championships from 2004-2009. Coach Campbell has received several coaching awards including 2009 National Coach of the Year, State Coach of the Year, and has been named News Dispatch Coach of the Year each of his seven years. Along with coaching at Marquette, Coach Campbell has worked with the Dunes volleyball organization since 1995.

BOYS' & GIRLS' TENNIS CAMP

Ages: K- 8th Grade
Date: July 25 - July 29
Time: 1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.
Location: Ripley Street Tennis Courts
Directed by: Ray Silvas
(MQT's Head Boys' & Girls' Tennis Coach)
Cost: $50.00/camper & $40.00/sibling camper

Raymond Silvas has coached at Marquette Catholic High School since the fall of 2008. He is a United States Professional Tennis Association Developmental Coach. In addition, he is also a tennis instructor at the Northwest Athletic Club in Michigan City. His experience over the years has led him to coach all age groups, from the very young to our Varsity squads. His greatest accomplishment is his Community Tennis Association which is also known as the MC Tennis Club. It provides tennis programs throughout the year for low-income children who otherwise could not afford to play and learn tennis. "I enjoy the fun and challenges that each group brings. My greatest passion is to teach tennis as a sport of a lifetime and a way to increase people's level of fitness."
