From Campus Ministry

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you." – John 14:27

As we head into finals week and prepare for Christmas break, we are reminded that true peace comes from Christ. In the midst of exams and busy schedules, may students approach their work with confidence and calm, trusting in the gifts God has placed within them. As the semester comes to a close, we wish our school community a restful and joy-filled Christmas break, filled with peace, gratitude, and time to renew both heart and spirit.
